

Our celebration today is filled with people who hear and respond to God's call. Even our liturgy is filled with the pattern of call and response. The responsorial psalm is the response to the first reading; the Creed is our proclamation of faith in response to God's word; the Liturgy of the Eucharist is our prayer of praise and thanksgiving in response to the Liturgy of the Word. Let us pray today that our lives will be our response to the call that we hear from God during our celebration!

Scripture for Next Sunday (Sixth/Ordinary Time)

Jeremiah 17:5-8

Cursed are those whose hearts turn away from God.

1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20

Christ has been raised from the dead.

Luke 6:17, 20-26

The Beatitudes

This week (4th Sunday in Ordinary Time), we hear the story of the call of the prophet Isaiah and the call of the first apostles. Like them, we are given the choice to follow the Lord or turn away. Next Sunday (5th Sunday in Ordinary Time) the stark contrast between those who say "yes" and those who say "no" is laid before us. Let us pray fervently that by our actions we will show forth to the world that we are the blessed ones of God.

Rosary for Respect Life

“A great prayer for life is urgently needed, a prayer which will rise up throughout the world. Through special initiatives and in daily prayer, may an impassioned plea rise to God, the Creator and lover of life from every Christian community, from every group and association, from every family and from the heart of every believer.”

Pope John Paul II
The Gospel of Life
(Evangelium Vitae), n100.

LATIN MASS

A Special Note of Thanks....*(Sent to the Pastors of:
St. Anne Catholic Church, State Street United Methodist, Central Presbyterian, and First Presbyterian Church)...*

Gentlemen,
Having just completed some data for 2009, I felt compelled to send a special note of thanks to you, in aggregate. The congregations of St. Anne Catholic Church, State Street United Methodist Church, Central Presbyterian Church, and First Presbyterian Church contributed a total of $52,936 to Bristol Faith in Action, in addition to the many volunteer hours, commodity packs, and prayers. That is 52% of ALL the financial contributions from churches received by BFIA in 2009. That certainly does not include the many, many gifts received from individual church members donating directly to us because of their love of God. I am so very thankful that you have God's message of compassion and help in your hearts and you have obviously communicated it well to your parishioners. On behalf of the 3,133 households served by BFIA in 2009, I thank you.

In His Service,
Tyler Franklin
Executive Director
Bristol Faith in Action
