

Brothers and sisters, we have come today at God's invitation to be nourished by word and Eucharist. The word that we hear today is a challenge: All our possessions, all our achievements, amount to nothing unless we become rich in what matters to God. As we listen to God's word, let us prayerfully ponder the question of what it is that matters to God. Then let us joyfully respond by putting on the "new self" of which Saint Paul writes.

Scripture readings for this coming week

(August 2 thru August 7, 2010)

Monday:	Jeremiah 28:1-17;	Matthew 14:13-21
Tuesday:	Jeremiah 30:1-2, 12-15, 18-22; Matthew 14:22-36
Wednesday:	Jeremiah 31:1-7;	Matthew 15:21-28
Thursday:	Jeremiah 31:31-34;	Matthew 16:13-23
Friday:	Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14; 2 Peter 1:16-19;	Luke 9:28b-36
Saturday:	Habakkuk 1:12—2:4;	Matthew 17:14-20

Readings for next Sunday (18th/Ordinary Time)

Wisdom 18:6-9

On the long-awaited Passover night,
God's children offered the paschal sacrifice.

Hebrews 11:1-2, 9-19

By faith we join our ancestors in faith, as together in hope we journey toward our homeland.

Luke 12:32-48

The Son of Man will come at an unexpected hour.

The author of Wisdom speaks of "that night" of exodus from bondage in Egypt when the Lord delivered His chosen people from death. Let us be prepared for the Lord who will come again, perhaps in the midst of night. As we walk in darkness, our journey to our heavenly homeland is illuminated by faith.

24-Hour ADORATION this Week
Tuesday 8:30 a.m. thru Wed. 8 a.m.

PRAYERS REQUESTED

We ask your prayers for Dennis Wilson, the cousin of Pam Balaban, who died recently. Notes may be sent to Pam & Ed at 6005 Old Jonesboro Rd., Bristol, TN 37620.

A Special Note...

To all St. Anne parishioners,
Thank you for the cards and prayers. They are so appreciated!

Frances Musick

Do You Have a Pyx?

If you borrowed a pyx from the office to take Communion to a family member or if you were a homebound minister and might have picked up an extra from us sometime... please return as our supply has been depleted. However, if you are still serving in this ministry of taking Communion to the Homebound, please keep the pyx. Thanks.

ALTAR FLOWERS

The flowers at our altar this weekend are given by John & Peggy Jenkins in loving memory of deceased members of the Jenkins & Columb families.

It's not TOO LATE

SAINT ANNE'S MOVIE NIGHTS

Everyone is welcome to spend Friday evenings with us this summer! Food available starting at approximately 7:30 p.m. (Food sold as a fundraiser for St. Anne's School). The Movie (it's Free!) begins at dusk. Bring your blanket or chair to sit on the hill and watch the movie! (If it rains, the movie will be shown inside the Parish Life Center/gymnasium). There are ONLY TWO MORE MOVIE NIGHTS this summer!

The movie for this Friday, August 6 is:

Percy Jackson & the Olympians:
The Lightning Thief

The movie for Friday, August 13 is:

Diary of a Wimpy Kid

St. Anne's School
HARVEST BAZAAR 2010

Many thanks to all the parishioners who helped make our Harvest Bazaar CRAFT FAIR a success last year! This year St. Anne School's Harvest Bazaar will be held on Friday, October 1. We are currently working on the craft portion of the Bazaar and welcome all volunteers! If you are interested in donating a craft or helping the day of the Bazaar, please see the sign up sheets in the Commons (Sign ups in the Commons this weekend and next July 31/Aug. 1, Aug. 7/8). All proceeds will benefit St. Anne Catholic School. Again, many thanks for the tremendous effort last year. We look forward to another successful Bazaar. We are also taking names of interested vendors. We will have a limited number of vendor tables available. Please contact Elizabeth Burriss at wburriss1993@mindspring.com if interested.

SCRIPTURE STUDY

Wednesday Night Scripture Study meets this Wednesday, August 4 in the Msgr. Hickie Center from 7-8 p.m. Please join us as we study the scriptures that will be proclaimed at next Sunday's Mass. Father Tim will lead our study this week. Bring your bible.

PLEASE NOTE:

- From Aug. 2 thru Aug. 9, please do not leave messages for the general parish office at ext. 0 or on the main St. Anne email address (stannes@stannes-bristol.org) as Rosie M. will be away visiting family. Instead, please leave messages for the general office with Betty Fitton at 276-669-8200 ext. 22 and frontdesk@stannes-bristol.org.
- Fr. Tim will be away this Monday and Tuesday. Fr. Ron Rutkowski will be here to celebrate Mass at 8 a.m. on those mornings.

Parish Pastoral Council

Parish Council members are reminded of their meeting this Thursday, August 5, at 7 p.m. in the school library.

RECEPTION FOR SEMINARIAN CHRIS HESS
Next weekend, August 7/8
AFTER ALL THE MASSES

Next weekend will be the last weekend that Chris will be with us before returning to seminary. We will have a reception with cake & punch after EACH of the Weekend Masses August 7 & 8 in the Great Room. Please plan to stop by after Mass next weekend and wish Chris a fond farewell. (Plans are to celebrate his ordination to the Transitional Diaconate here at Saint Anne's in early April!)

ADORATION

"Adoration is essentially an embrace with Jesus in which I say to Him: "I am Yours, and I ask You, please stay with me always." —Pope Benedict XVI

Eucharistic adoration is the act of worshipping God as He is present in the consecrated Eucharist. The purpose of adoration is to highlight the presence of our Lord in the Eucharist.

"We Have come to do Him homage."

Those words, spoken by the Magi from the East as they searched for the infant Jesus, resound through the centuries to be echoed in the heart of every person who makes a visit to the Blessed Sacrament.

St. Anne's Monthly 24-Hour
Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament
Begins after the 8a.m. this Tues., Aug. 3
And concludes at 8 a.m. on Wed., Aug. 4

Sign up to come spend an hour in prayer with our Lord. Or if you can't commit for an entire hour, try to come by sometime to pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

"Of all devotions, that of adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the greatest after the sacraments, the one dearest to God and the one most helpful to us." — St. Alphonsus Liguori

THANK YOU! To all of our bulletin advertisers... listed on the last page and back cover of the bulletin. We appreciate their generosity to our parish. If you'd like information about advertising, please contact the office.

HOSPICE VOLUNTEERS

A Special Kind of Caring

Wellmont Hospice is always seeking volunteers from the community. There are volunteer opportunities for everyone: adults who work and have families, seniors, retirees, and those with unique talents. Whether you can offer companionship and a listening ear to patients and families, give bereavement support, provide respite to a caregiver, provide a palliative massage, give a haircut, help in the office, lend a hand with your computer skills, or share your expertise to help promote hospice care, hospice volunteers feel they receive as much as they give and their lives are enriched by making a difference. Your decision to serve as a hospice volunteer will change your life forever! Please consider how you could minister to those with life limiting illnesses through the use of your time and talents.

Volunteer Benefits include:

- Free Training and Flexible Hours
- Free Annual Flu Shot
- Volunteer Support
- Ongoing Education related to end of life issues
- Annual Volunteer Appreciation Dinner
- Several yearly gatherings

Volunteers Training is scheduled throughout the year. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact the Volunteer coordinator, Patricia York at Wellmont Hospice at 423-844-5257.

Monthly Papal Intentions (for AUGUST)

To better know “the concrete problems that trouble the Universal Church, especially those of the missions,” the Holy Father asks that his monthly intentions be “the object of knowledgeable and responsible prayer on the part of the people of God.”

General Intention:

That those who are without work or homes, or who are otherwise in serious need, may find understanding and welcome, as well as concrete help in overcoming their difficulties.

Mission Intention:

That the Church may be a “home” for all people, ready to open its doors to any who suffer from racial or religious discrimination, hunger, or wars forcing them to emigrate to other countries.

Liturgy Notes...

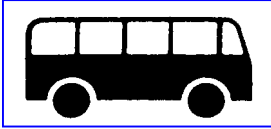

What's happening with the NEW ROMAN MISSAL???

The third edition of the Roman Missal was approved by the Holy See, beginning a new stage of liturgical renewal following the Second Vatican Council. The translation was confirmed by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments and was announced at the start of the Vox Clara Committee meeting in Rome on April 28, 2010. In a cover letter accompanying the decree, it was stated that the complete text of the Missal would follow “in short order”, after final editing by Congregation officials.

In a recent newsletter from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the USCCB has said they are expecting the final text “before the end of the summer”.

We are planning to keep you informed and also plan to have several educational opportunities here as we look forward with joy and enthusiasm to the implementation of the revised Roman Missal. If the current timeline remains in effect, we plan to do education for a year leading up to the implementation, which is tentatively set for Advent of 2011.

So... stay tuned for more information!

LITURGICAL MINISTRIES

“Unity in prayer and in the active participation in the celebration of the divine mysteries in the Church’s liturgy contributes in an especially effective way to the wealth of Christian life of both the individual and the community.”
— Pope John XXIII

Have you considered taking an active role in the life of our parish and the Church by being involved as a liturgical minister? We will be offering training sessions in the fall for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Lectors, Altar Servers, Acolytes and Mass Coordinators. Watch the bulletin for the dates for training this fall or sign up at the Ministries Fair (which will be in the commons the weekends of Sept. 4/5 and 11/12).

Please prayerfully consider being of service at Mass as a liturgical minister....

“ — the Eucharist which is the source and summit of the whole of Christian life..”
