

Brothers and sisters, in the middle of summer vacation time we gather today to hear stories about travelers and the hospitality they receive. We are invited to consider the perspectives both of the guests and the hosts. While gracious hospitality is warmly received, God grows concerned when it is accompanied by anxiety and worry. Let us set aside our cares and listen to God's word with joy and serenity.

Scripture Readings for this week (July 19-24)

Monday: Micah 6:1-4, 6-8; Matthew 12:38-42
Tuesday: Micah 7:14-15, 18-20; Matthew 12:46-50
Wednesday: Jeremiah 1:1, 4-10; Matthew 13:1-9
Thursday: Jeremiah 2:1-3, 7-8, 12-13;
John 20:1-2, 11-18
Friday: Jeremiah 3:14-17; Matthew 13:18-23
Saturday: Jeremiah 7:1-11; Matthew 13:24-30

Next Sunday's Readings (17th Sunday/Ordinary Time)

Genesis 18:20-32

Abraham bargained with God for the safety of the innocent.

Colossians 2:12-14

God nailed our sins to the cross of Christ.

Luke 11:1-13

Jesus teaches us to pray and reminds us to persevere in prayer.

Next Sunday's readings teach us about various aspects of prayer. Abraham's conversation with God reveals that prayer is quite often marked by persistence. In the Gospel, the Lord Jesus gives us the great gift of the Lord's Prayer. After offering this prayer, Jesus then outlines the kind of lives those who utter this prayer are called to live.

A Special Note....

We would like to thank everyone for their prayers and cards of support for our granddaughter Alexandria Reese. We are blessed to be a part of St. Anne's parish.

Lee & Marion Kyle
