

Today we return to our Ordinary Time Sunday celebrations, and with what a profound sense of gratitude do we hear that all people have been forgiven much! Our gracious and merciful God has invited us here to celebrate a forgiving love that knows no bounds. We who have experienced God's gracious reconciliation know that it is Christ who now lives in us, as Saint Paul says. Let us give praise and thanksgiving to God this day and every day for such a wonderful gift.

Tuesday: 1 Kings 21:17-29; Matthew 5:43-48
Wednesday: 2 Kings 2:1, 6-14; Mt. 6:1-6, 16-18

Friday: 2 Kgs. 11:1-4, 9-18, 20; Matthew 6:19-23
Saturday: 2 Chronicles 24:17-25; Matthew 6:24-34

Readings for next Sunday
(12th Sunday/Ordinary Time)

Zechariah 12:10-11; 13:1

He was pierced for our sins.

Galatians 3:26-29

We are children of God in Christ Jesus.

Luke 9:18-24

Take up the cross

We take up again the Sunday-by-Sunday reading through the Gospel according to Luke that was interrupted by Lent and Eastertime. We find ourselves at a great crescendo in the Gospel as Peter identifies Jesus as the Messiah. Jesus throws cold water on this declaration of faith by reminding the disciples about the Messiah's sorrowful fate. And the followers of the Messiah must share this fate.

MASS INTENTIONS:

If you wish to schedule a Mass Intention on a specific date, please realize that often the intentions are already scheduled for quite some time, so we recommend you call several weeks (or months) in advance for a specific date needed.

Special Notes....

Dear St. Anne's,
Thank you very much for awarding me the Barry Brady Memorial Scholarship. It is an honor that truly means a lot to me. I have been a part of the parish and community ever since I was a little girl and have continued to strengthen my faith in God throughout the years. With the help of the scholarship I will further my education to be the person that God wishes me to be. I deeply appreciate the help and support that you have given me.
