

Today's Gospel will help set the tone for the coming weeks and months. Having placed our faith in the Messiah, we are told that we must take up our cross every day and follow Him. Strengthened by the power of Christ's death and resurrection, which we celebrated fully over the recent Triduum and Easter seasons, let us pray today to accept willingly the crosses of this life that we may know the fullness of life in the world to come.

Scripture for next Sunday (13th Sunday/Ordinary Time)

1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21

Elisha left everything to inherit Elijah's prophetic role.

Galatians 5:1, 13-18

A proper use of freedom includes service to others, motivated by love.

Luke 9:51-62

Jesus expects us to leave everything to follow Him.

In next Sunday's Gospel Jesus resolutely begins His "journey to Jerusalem". He does this with some urgency, telling His disciples what they must do to follow Him. As we hear these words next Sunday, perhaps we can examine our own lives to see what we need to set aside and leave behind in order to follow Jesus more closely on the way.

Many thanks to everyone for your prayers and kind expressions of sympathy at the death of my brother Enrique Ibarra. May God bless you.

“READING BUDDIES”

They meet with their student once a week, for 30 minutes. During their time together, they read, talk, draw pictures, and build a positive encouraging, supportive relationship. It’s very simple! Reading Buddies aren’t expected to be the teacher, just a Reading Cheerleader!

The Reading Buddies program is currently looking for volunteers for Highland View and Washington Lee Elementary schools, for the upcoming school year. For more information, go to <http://www.readingbuddiesbristol.org>. To volunteer, please contact Sara DeBusk at sadebusk@bvps.org.
