

The Sunday Gospels for the remainder of this liturgical year will take place while Jesus is on the “journey to Jerusalem” that begins in today’s Gospel. He has a clear idea of who He is and where He is going. As we gather here today, perhaps our prayer can be for the grace to follow Jesus on the way, doing what He asks us to do.

Scripture for next Sunday (14th Sunday Ordinary Time)

Isaiah 66:10-14c

Mother Jerusalem will gather her children.

Galatians 6:14-18

I bear in my body the brand marks of Jesus.

Luke 10:1-12, 17-20 (or) Luke 10:1-9

If people welcome you, bid them peace.

If not, shake their dust from your feet and move on.

Jesus says in next Sunday’s Gospel that the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few. Our Church today is in need of more laborers as well. Let us reflect on Jesus’ instructions to His disciples and imagine ourselves among the first evangelizers.. What lessons might we learn for our mission today?
